

2019 ELITE PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Powered by CNA

ELITE High Performance Team Champion, Philadelphia, PA

Tuesday, May 14 – Wednesday, May 15

Tuition $1,500

This 1.5-day experiential learning program will task participants to create and maintain a high-performing team through a shared objective and work together to realize that objective. Rowing will be used as a metaphor for how to facilitate team building and enhance individual team member leadership development within a business environment. Participants will be coached to shed individual ego for the collective group, leverage individual strengths, and develop team norms.

ELITE Corporate Resilience, Colorado Springs, CO

Friday, October 4

Tuition $1,000

Focusing on managing uncertainty, stress awareness and management, burnout and strategic recovery, this 1-day resilience training helps employees redefine and leverage stress for growth. The program will use an innovative, holistic approach that focuses on moving between stress and strategic recovery to help build resilience and enable higher performance.

Participants are invited to stay for the 2019 Insurance Leadership Forum and accompany their firm on carrier appointments, and ILF business and evening activities.

Work Skills of the Future

Through shared experiences, online resources, opportunities and assignments, this year we will work to build the skills identified as critical for success in the future. Quarterly communications and information will be shared with ELITE members to help them understand what these skills are, why they are important, and how they can enhance their own skillset. Schedule to be announced.
