

Social Sentiment Analysis

Overview: During the time period of March 22 to March 29, there were 90,434 mentions of Medicare for all. This volume is high. Comparatively, net neutrality garnered 14,363 mentions during the same time period.

KEY FINDINGS

March 23 was the ninth anniversary of the Affordable Care Act (ACA):

- Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez: The Congresswoman from New York made headlines after she said Obamacare should be shored up before passing Medicare for All.
- Gavin Newsom: California's governor is continuing to build on the success of the ACA by creating universal health care in the state.
- Bernie Sanders: Criticized the Trump administration's position that every part of the ACA should be overturned and called for the creation of a single payer system, not just ACA fixes.

TOP TWEETS

- @KatiePavlich: Notice how Trump doesn't give into the bogus "Medicare for all" language used by the left. He calls it what it is: socialist, government run healthcare. [3,468 Retweets, 23,059,642 Impressions]
- @BernieSanders: The question we face as a nation: Will we continue to allow private health insurance companies to profit off of human suffering? Or will we end that disgrace and make health care a right through Medicare for All? [2,354 Retweets, 17,026,051 Impressions]

TOP AUTHORS AND VOLUME

There were 54,000 unique authors. The week's top authors mostly stayed the same:

- @BernieSanders: Senator from Vermont and 2020 presidential candidate [9,163,349 Followers]
- @KatiePavlich: Fox News contributor and columnist for The Hill. [622,379 Followers]
- @KamalaHarris: Senator from California and 2020 presidential candidate [2,490,576 Followers]

Democratic and Republican Medicare for All Messaging

Overview: Top Democratic messaging focused on the success of the Affordable Care Act and the need to build upon it. Republican messaging focused on the failures single payer health systems in socialist countries like Finland and Venezuela.

Democrats

- @SenSanders: Over 30,000 Americans could die every single year if Trump gets his way and destroys the Affordable Care Act. Our job is to fight back against his efforts to take health care away from millions of people. We must make health care a right through Medicare for All. [1,546 Retweets, 14,284,168 Impressions]
- @GavinNewsom: Nine years ago today, the #ACA was signed into law with the idea that every single person has the right to quality, affordable health care. We're going to continue to build on that as we move forward with universal health care in California. [1,442 Retweets, 14,099,229 Impressions]
- @KamalaHarris: One of the biggest health care reforms in half a century became law nine years ago. The Affordable Care Act showed us what's possible when we fight for health care as a right for all, not a privilege for a few, and create a real pathway for Medicare for All. [1,359 Retweets, 12,132,145 Impressions]

Republicans

- @StandAmericaNow: Finland's universal health care system is struggling with exploding costs. Proponents of #socializedmedicine in America should take note. @BernieSanders <https://cnb.cx/2CMt74c> [1,074 Retweets, 1,833,754 Impressions]
- @Itlgcoach: Democrats have absolutely nothing to run on. Their think tanks need to come up with something fast. Finland: Government Collapses Over Universal Health Care Costs, #Bernie2020 Hardest Hit #WalkAwayFromDemocratSocialists #LiberalismIsAMentalDisorder <https://t.co/xXOxMgMisp> [247 Retweets, 8,946,594 Impressions]
- @Steve_Hanke: Hidden behind @AOC's #GreenNewDeal and @SenSanders "Medicare for all" are the same #socialist policies that have #Venezuela in ruins. To see their policies in action, look no further than the starvation, death and disease happening in #Caracas. [123 Retweets, 1,066,754 Impressions]

Overall Conversation Topic By Volume

The Affordable Care Act's topic volume increased to 19% this week, up from 3% last week.

